

RRife Resources Ltd.

Rife is a private exploration and production company, wholly-owned by the CN Pension Trust funds, the pension fund for employees of the Canadian National Railway Company. Rife has a long history of operations within the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin, spanning more than 37 years.

Our focus areas are Lloydminster, Southeast Saskatchewan and Central Alberta. 2020 production was more than 3,800 barrels of oil equivalent per day.

We also manage the operations of Canpar Holdings Ltd. and Freehold Royalties Ltd. These two companies are focused on the ownership of oil and gas royalties and mineral titles.

History

Canpar 1979

The CN Pension Trust Funds became active in the oil and gas industry when Canpar and Dome Petroleum Limited acquired the assets of Siebens Oil & Gas Ltd.

Rife 1983

The CN Pension Trust Funds established Rife Resources Ltd. to broaden the scope of their oil and gas investment program.

Freehold 1996

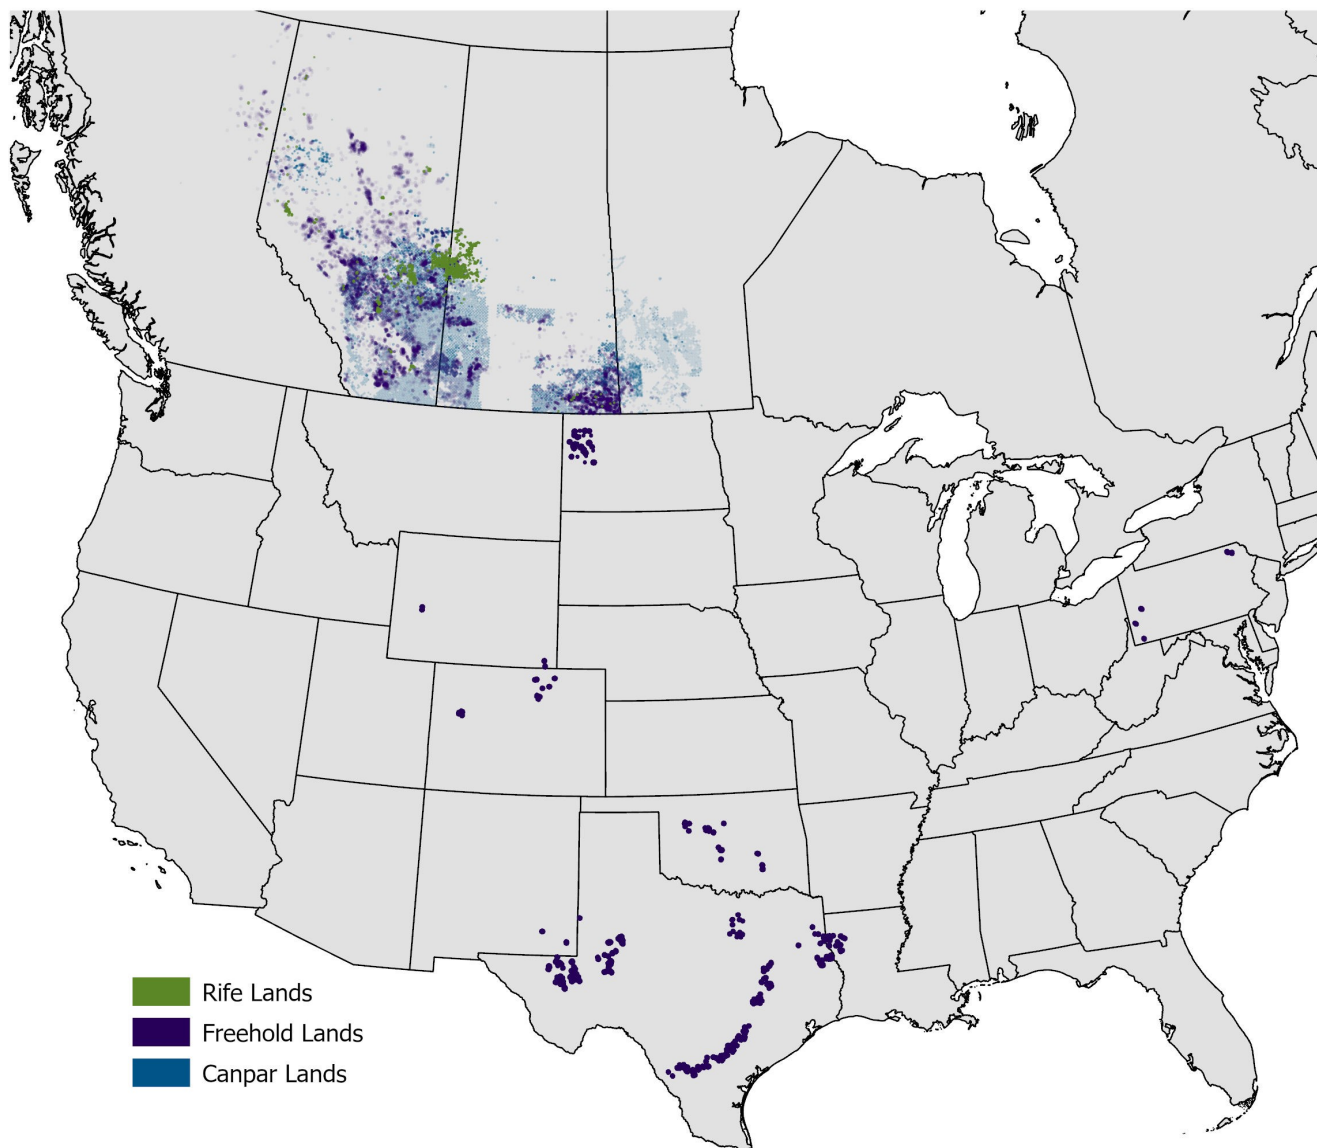

The CN Pension Trust Funds established Freehold Royalty Trust. Proceeds from Freehold's initial public offering were used to acquire all of Canpar's producing royalty interests (with Canpar retaining the deeper rights and all non-producing assets). Freehold also acquired working interest properties from Rife and Canpar. Freehold converted to a corporation on December 31, 2010 and changed its name to Freehold Royalties Ltd.
